"See How They Run"

Shown rehearsing at their new headquarters at 315 Walnut St., Alice Jones as Penelope, the American ex-actress wife on an English Vicar is visited by an old friend, Cpl. Clive Winton, stationed near-by, played by Roger Talbot. This scene from the rollicking comedy, "See How They Run", will be included in this extremely funny play to be presented by the Chalkliners on Dec. 6 & 7 at the Phelps School at 8:30 p.m.

The Scholarship Fund of the Agawam Woman's Club is to benefit from this production which prompts a two-fold urge for the public to enjoy a full evening of genuine pleasure thereby being a part in supporting the major Scholarship fund-raising project of the Woman's Club this year.

The recently acquired facilities for the Chalkliners activities is providing the group a broader atmosphere for rehearsing. All workshops, meetings, and social functions will be held at the new headquarters; non-members will be admitted only when accompanied by a contributing member of the little theatre group.

Recent membership in the New England Theatre Conference (NETC) further pledges the Chalkliners to develop and expand the quality of community theatre for the benefit of both members and the attending public.

See members of the Woman's Club or Chalkliners for tickets which are now on sale, and be sure not to miss this exciting production.

Connelly Loyalty Pointed Out In Campaign Article

"The 'Connelly for Selectman Committee' concludes, in this article, its presentation of why ED CONNELLY should be your new Selectman come next Tuesday.

"There is no other reason why this great country of ours has come to be what it is today than the simple addition of loyalty plus ambition. If this is true of a nation, it is then true of a town and of a family. If you knew them well, you would know this is so true of the 'Connells.'

"Loyalty can come in two portions. It can be inferred by expression only or it can be real and honest as expressed in action. Ed Connelly has demonstrated his loyalty to you over the past several years by putting you, the taxpayers, first in his thoughts and actions. 'How could he,' you question? We answer, 'Because he is a thrifty spender and not a lustful buyer.'

"Loyalty is not a 'one way' street in Agawam. Our people, we believe, will insist upon repaying loyalty with loyalty on Nov. 19. If this is not proven true next Tuesday, then any man, Republican or Democrat, would be a fool to serve a political apprenticeship on any committee in our town if the electorate refuse to honor it.

"Loyalty begins at home. It begins with you. Political loyalty is carried from the heart to the lead in a pencil by the formation of a cross (X) as you stand alone (Continued on Page 2)

70% AHS Freshmen Get Booster Shots

The Health Department in cooperation with the School Department conducted a Diphtheria and Tetanus Booster Clinic for the Freshmen grade of the Senior High School on Nov. 4th. There were 228 students or 70% who participated in this program.

The Health Department was gratified by the response of the Freshman class. Since need has been shown for this clinic, it will be continued in the future. Those who did not take advantage of this immunization should contact their own doctor and discuss the need for their immunization of these booster shots.

Over 4700 Expected To Vote Tuesday, Polls Open 8-8

Town Clerk Brandon N. Letelier stated that if past experience was any criteria on which to base voter turnout, the coming town election of Tuesday, Nov. 19, would see approximately 4,784 casting their ballots for town officers. This figure represents only 58 percent of the total voter registration for the town and appears to be synonymous with the attitude taken by too many of the townspeople in allowing a bare majority to govern their affairs.

The polls will be open from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. on election day which should provide everyone with the opportunity to vote during these hours. Both parties are providing transportation to those unable to otherwise go to the polls. All are urged to take advantage of this service so as to exercise the franchise, which is an inherent right of all citizens, so that they might be a party of a government by the consent of the people.

Joseph Della-Giustina, candidate for school committee, cites his background and experience as qualifying him to represent the people of Agawam on the school committee. Mr. Della-Giustina, who has children attending the elementary, junior high and senior high schools in Agawam, pointed out that he can look at the educational problems in Agawam from the standpoint of a parent, taxpayer, and professional educator.

He was Agawam's personnel director for three years and he has been a town meeting member almost since Agawam adopted the town meeting member form of government.

Mr. Della-Giustina served in World War II with the combat engineers in Europe and also was athletic director for VFW Post #70.

Selectman Chriscola Endorses Ed Connelly

Selectman Frank Chriscola supports Ed Connelly for your Selectman. Connelly has the proven experience in town government. He has been a member of the Finance Committee, the most important Committee in town government, for three years and its chairman for two years. NOCILLA SEEKS LIBRARY POST Salvatore Nocilla nominated by the Democrats and Independents two weeks ago will represent the Democratic Party in the approaching town election, Nov. 19. He is seeking the office of Library Trustee.

Mr. Nocilla has a long record of civic accomplishments behind him, including town meeting member; he has also served on many town committees and has devoted much of his time to aiding others. He is a member of Springfield Lodge of Elks, and past president of the Hotel-Restaurant employees union.

Mr. Nocilla is a graduate of Agawam High School, class of 1938, is a home owner in Agawam and has lived in this community practically all his life. He is married to the former Anne Forrest and they are parents of two children, Richard and Joan, and have seven grandchildren.

Mr. Nocilla said today, "I am keenly interested in the library situation in Agawam and realize that if we are to continue to give the residents of Agawam, both adults and children the proper service, we must update our library facilities. We must be ready to meet the demands of an energetic, ambitious, growing community and give the town 100% service. I feel that my background of working for the Boston Public Library as a cataloguer will stand me in good stead if I am elected to the post of Library Trustee. I have attended Burdett College in Boston, and the University of Wisconsin and ask the voters of Agawam to seriously consider by candidacy to the post of Library Trustee when they go to the polls on the 19 of Nov." "If elected, I promise you the residents of Agawam to carry out the duties of that office to the very best of my ability and to give of my time freely to continue to the fine tra-

I promise not only to continue this service but to improve if possible existing conditions that even more people may be served and that more books be made available for you. SOCIAL SECURITY

Questions and Answers

Q. I work for wages on a farm. My boss takes out social security every week from my pay but I don't think he sends it in. When I asked him about it, he said he'll send it all in at the end of the year. Is this proper?

A. For a farm worker, yes. Unlike other employers, farmers don't have to make quarterly social security reports. They send in their social security reports once a year, in January.

Q. I got my social security card in 1937 and worked steadily until my marriage in 1951. People say that since I am now 62 I am entitled to social security benefits. Can I get benefits even though I have not worked for over ten years?

A. Probably so. In 1961, Congress reduced the work requirements needed to qualify for social security benefits. Now a woman age 62 can get reduced benefits if she has at least one quarter of covered work for every year elapsed between 1950 and the year in which she becomes 62. If you have at least 12 quarters, 3 full years of work under social security, you may be entitled to reduced social security benefits even though you did not work during the last ten years. However, if your husband qualifies for benefits based on his work, you will not be able to collect both your own benefits and wife's benefits and if the wife's benefits would be higher, any difference between your own benefits and the wife's benefits.

Q. Since hearing of the 1961 social security amendments, I have been considering the idea of retiring at age 62. I understand that benefits at age 62 are lower than those payable at age 65. If I elect to receive my benefits at age 62, would my benefits be increased when I reach 65?

A. No. Once a person elects to receive benefits between ages 62 and 65 at a reduced rate, he or she will continue to receive reduced benefits in the same amount even after he or she reaches 65 years of age.

Q. Two years ago when I was 65, I was told I was not eligible for social security benefits because I had not worked long enough to be insured. They said I needed 13 quarters of coverage and I had only 10. I have not been able to work any more, but I've heard that Congress has made changes in the law. Now I am 67 years old and infirm. Can I get special security benefits now?

A. Most likely you can! In fact, you have probably been losing benefits since August 1961. On that date, Congress reduced the work requirements to qualify for social security benefits. Beginning with August 1961, you needed only one quarter of work for every year elapsed after 1950. Therefore, after August 1961 you needed a total of 10 quarters of coverage to be eligible for benefits. We suggest that you visit the nearest social security district office at once and file your application for benefits.

Q. I work as a cleaning woman in a number of private homes. Some of my employers don't report my earnings for social security because I work only half a day a week for them. Are they doing the right thing?

A. Any employer who pays you $50 or more in cash wages in a calendar quarter is legally liable for reporting your earnings. As little as four dollars paid regularly every week should be reported. Ask the social security office for pamphlet No. 21 to give to your employers.

No pavement could be stronger even if carved from solid rock!

When you drive the smooth-riding new-type concrete, congratulate your highway department for giving you the best!

Every ride a rest! It's all glide no bounce on new-type concrete!

Your comfort is built right into these highways. You won't find a smoother-riding, flatter-driving surface.

New-type concrete is basically reconstituted rock. It's one pavement that actually grows stronger with age. It doesn't get "tired" and rut and furrow. Specially designed subbases give it extra strength.

And new-type concrete is sound-conditioned. It's laid continuously with only narrow sawed-in cushion spaces that can't "sound off." Winter's freezing and spring's thaws won't roughen new-type concrete. "Air entrainment" prevents damage by providing built-in space for moisture expansion. Even safety comes built in . . . with the grainy tire-gripping surface, the light color that lets you see better at night.

Engineers predict new-type concrete will last 50 years and more—with upkeep costs as much as 60% lower than for asphalt. Thousands of miles of concrete are scheduled for big, new roads. It's easy to see why!

LIGHT

Ever since men first looked at the sun they have marveled at the phenomenon of light. It is difficult for us to realize that our heat-giving planetary neighbor is 93 million miles from us. Since light travels at the speed of 186 thousand miles per second, it takes less than 8 minutes for that light to reach us.

Light, because it travels at this tremendous speed and is part of an energy band, can be harnessed for many uses. We are just beginning to understand how to do this.

Light has many qualities that add to its mystery. For instance, white light has all of the colors in it. The colors of the spectrum are red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet. Red has the longest wave length and violet, the shortest. If you extend past the violet end you reach the ultra-violet area. On the red side we have the longer wave lengths which are the infra-red spectrum. So, on either side of the light band is irradiation and heat. Both of these are a part of the complete energy spectrum.

We know that different colors have different effects upon human beings. Red is supposed to excite and blue to inhibit. Green is restful and yellow makes us cautious.

Fall Is Pumpkin Pie Time

The time of year can almost be told by the food appearing on the table. And, what says Fall faster than a spicy Pumpkin Pie? Its rich, golden brown color complements the turning leaves and the hearty flavor is just right with the nippy air.

Pumpkin Pie made with milk is as nutritious as it is delicious. Children and teenagers need 4 or more glasses of milk daily; adults 2 or more glasses. By using milk in cooking, you can help make sure your family will get the recommended daily requirement.

Serve Pumpkin Pie soon and bring Fall and good eating to your dinner table.

Pumpkin Pie

1 unbaked 9-inch pie shell	1/4 teaspoon cloves
3/4 cup granulated or brown sugar, firmly packed	2 cups cooked or canned pumpkin (1 No. 303 can)
1/2 teaspoon salt	2 eggs, slightly beaten
1 teaspoon cinnamon	1-1/2 cups half and half cereal cream or whole milk
1/2 teaspoon ginger

Whipped Cream

Measure sugar; blend in salt and spices thoroughly. Add pumpkin and eggs; stir to blend. Add milk and stir until the mixture is smooth. Pour into unbaked pie shell and bake in a hot oven, 425°, for 15 minutes. Reduce heat to 350° and bake 40 to 45 minutes, or until a thin-bladed knife inserted midway between the crust and center comes out clean. (Center will still be soft.) Remove from oven and cool on a wire rack. Serve with slightly sweetened whipped cream. Makes 6 servings.

Health for All

EXPANDING RESEARCH

Bend, stretch, touch fingers to toes. Some people exercise to lose weight; others to chart the road back to a normal life.

In Atlanta, Ga., patients with lung diseases exercise as part of a research project at the Emory University Medical School. The idea of the project is to explore possible programs of physical rehabilitation and job training for patients with lung diseases. Chest specialists say such tests are needed to help them find out what their patients can and can't do.

Basic to the problem is the serious disabling effect that lung diseases have on the patients' breathing. Many get extremely short of breath the moment they start putting forth any marked physical effort. It can be a tricky matter to determine useful work standards for such patients. A wrong guess about the job an individual can handle could mean tragic failure, with serious medical, economic or emotional after-effects.

Yet, difficult or not, it's a job that urgently needs doing — an exploratory effort that, if carried out successfully, can result in the rescue of many thousands from enforced idleness. It's one of the 37 research projects on lung diseases financed this year in whole or in part by the National Tuberculosis Association and its related state or local groups. The effort is to be expanded according to association officials, until it has become a two-million-dollar annual program to find better ways and means of dealing with problems relating to tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases. — Hampden County Tuberculosis and Public Health Assoc.

Few things are more dangerous than a train of thought that carries no freight.

SQUARE DANCE

By Norm and Dot Jenks

Dick Steele Scores Again

When it comes to having a successful square dance you must first have a good caller and Dick Steele is just that. A very appreciative crowd of 15 sets not only enjoyed his talented calling but also got a little work shop on some of the new maneuvers and refreshed on some of the old ones. Several dancers also took advantage of learning a round dance number.

A Banner Goes To Cummington

The Country Cousins from Cummington, Mass., came to visit us. Twelve couples in all and we were delighted to have them. One of the joys of square dancing is the pleasure of having such a congenial group of people come and enjoy an evening with us. Charlie Nathan, our program chairman presented the banner to them. Several other clubs from the area were also represented.

Birthday congratulations were in order for Lucille Parchick and Bob Dugan.

Banner Dance This Friday

We are off to the West Springfield Club this Friday, Nov. 15, to get another banner for our col-

Lemon, Ice — Trick With Shrimp

In a hurry for shrimp cocktails?

If you have canned shrimp on the shelf and 30 minutes to spare, you are on your way. There is a trick to putting extra firm "bite" into canned shrimp for cocktails and this is it:

First, drain and rinse the shrimp. Place them in a bowl and cover with ice, lots of it. For each 4½-ounce can of shrimp, combine ¼ cup water and 2 tablespoons lemon juice and pour over the shrimp. Let them stand under their ice-cap for 30 minutes, stirring once or twice to make sure all are chilled. It is this combination of intense cold and acid that gets results in short order. Take the shrimp straight from the ice into the cocktail glasses and serve immediately. Two 4½-ounce cans of shrimp make cocktails for six.

lection. Earl Johnson is the caller and the dance will be at the John Ashley School, Massasoit St., West Springfield. Come along, you'll be glad you did.

Turkey Door Prizes

On Friday, Nov. 22, the Agawam Promenaders will have a square dance and the feature of the evening will be the offer of turkeys for door prizes. The winner may be you, so be sure to be there.

Auditions for C&W Entertainers Nov. 23

Auditions for Country and Western entertainers and novelty singers will be held Saturday, Nov. 23, at 10 a.m. in the Stage-coach Barn, Eastern States Exposition, West Springfield, Mass.

Those interested must be 18 or over and must bring their own instruments and music. A piano accompanist will be available. The auditions are open to both male and female entertainers.

Selectees from the auditions will be part of a professional touring country and western show being produced by Wally Beach and Peter Russell.

Hippy Hulas Hasten Highway Hypnosis

BOSTON — If you find yourself fascinated by the gyrations of hippy hula girls, you may be on your way to a severe case of highway hypnosis which, according to ALA safety experts, you could well do without.

Referring to the gyrating hula dolls which perform in the back windows of cars, Philip C. Wallwork, safety director, said, "Motorists can do without these little shows going on in the cars ahead. The little gals are, we admit, fascinating to watch but they can represent a real hazard when motorists watch them instead of the road."

Underdog Brownies Whip Greenfield 26-12

The Agawam defense stole two Greenfield passes in the final period to break a 12-12 tie, Saturday, at Veterans Memorial Field, and to power the Brownies to a 26-12 victory. The thieves of the day were John Klenakis and John Michalek, and the top scorer was flashy Ed Harashuk, who tallied three TD's. The Brownies are 3-2-0 and Greenfield is 1-6-0 in the AA Conference.

Agawam took the opening kick 76 yards with Harashuk scoring on a 23 yard run, Bob Morin's 19 yard run to the 23 and Bob Polopek's short gainers aided the drive. The Greenfield defense, who played more than the offense, stopped the Brownies inside the 10 yard line twice before the half was over. Agawam's Ron Penna recovered a Greenfield fumble on the Agawam 15 to stop a late first half score.

Early in the second half Greenfield recovered a fumble at the 30, and scored on a one yard dive by Macleod after five plays with Tom Suchanek bootlegging for 16 yards. Two plays after the ensuing kickoff, halfback Bob Morin broke through the line on a 50 yard scoring dash.

Tom Suchanek passed to Phelps and Margola and gained 10 yards on his own with Macleod scoring from the three to cap a 66 yard drive. In the Agawam dominated fourth, Greenfield was working from their own 20, lineman John Kienakis intercepted an aerial and brought it to the 12. Bob Morin promptly gained three and the Greenies helped by being off-side, which brought the ball to the four, and Ed Harashuk ran over guard for the TD.

Suchanek threw a sixteen yarder to Margola at the Brownie 44, after the kickoff. End John Michalek stole a pass at the 45 and almost went the distance but was hauled down at the six. Harashuk scored two plays later and Bob Morin scored the only points after of the game. A Brownie attack was stalled at the 15 yard line of Greenfield by a clipping penalty. The rugged Brownie defense held Greenfield's offense and the powerful Brownie offense ran up the score.

West Springfield comes to town Saturday and as usual this should be a battle.

VWWI Entertained By Golden Age Club

The annual Birthday Party and observance of Armistice Day was held last Saturday at Tinti's Restaurant sponsored by the Veterans of World War One. Visitors from barracks all over the state helped in the celebration.

Following a wonderful turkey dinner the local Golden Age Club put on a show called "The Western Revue." Community singing was led by Jennie Miller with Ed Farrel at the piano.

The Barracks wish to express their gratitude to the members of the Golden Age Club for the wonderful entertainment.
